

REVELATION

LIFE FROM ABUNDANCE

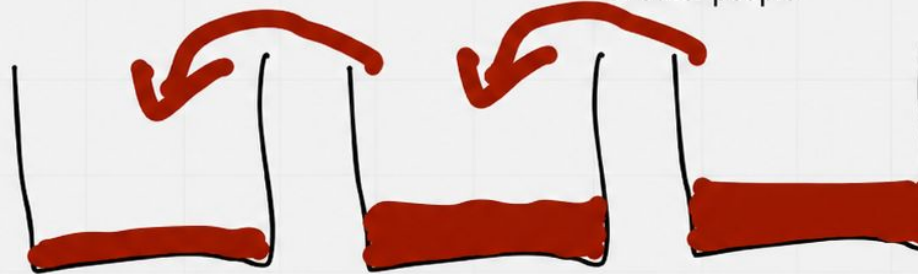

⚠ If there is a lack of filling/supply anywhere, problems will inevitably arise.

A person relies on their own strength, driven by wounds, unmet needs, and lower motives.

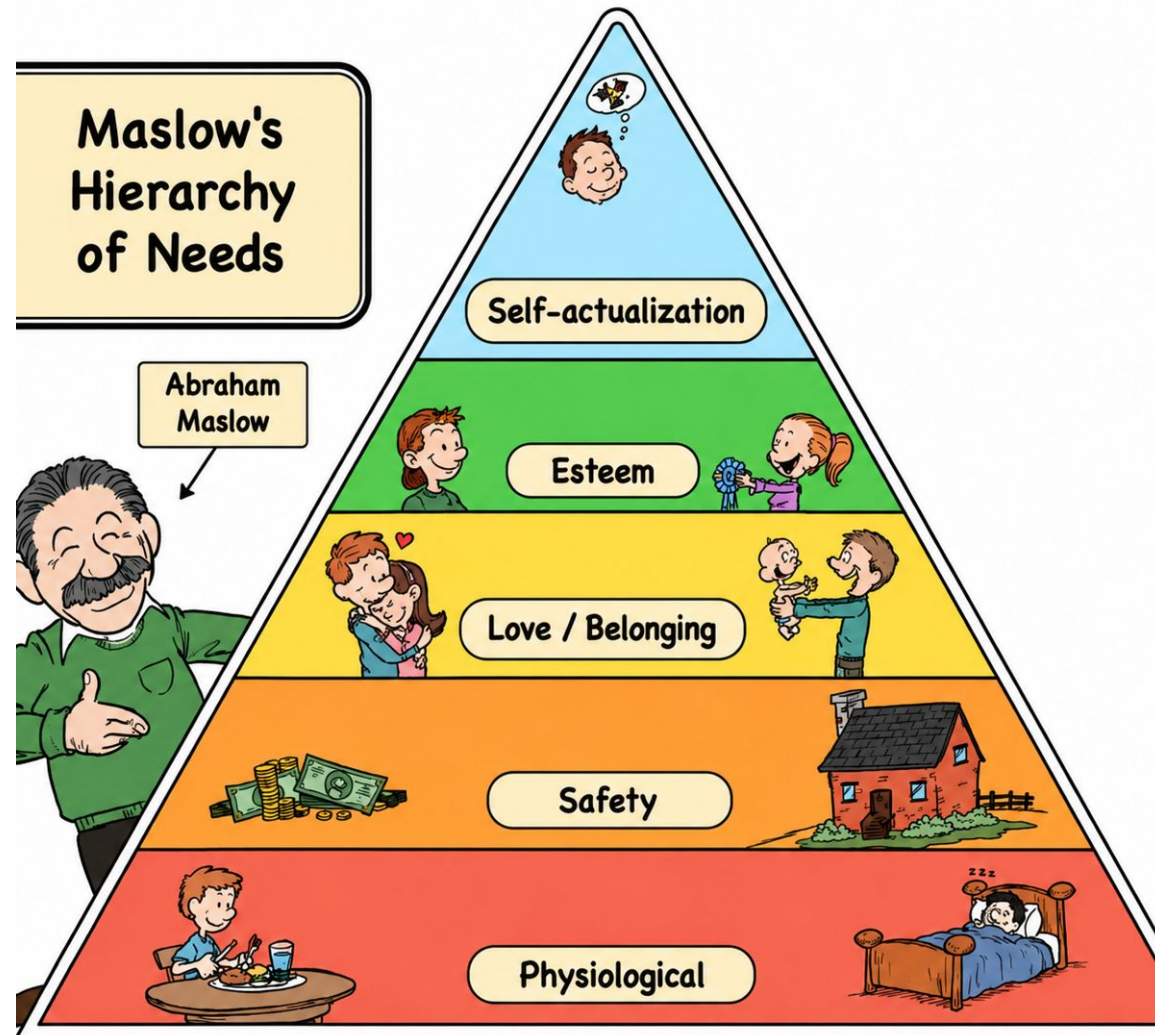

Other people: family, business.
Temporary success in 1-2 areas of life at the expense of other people.

This is a Life of Lack.

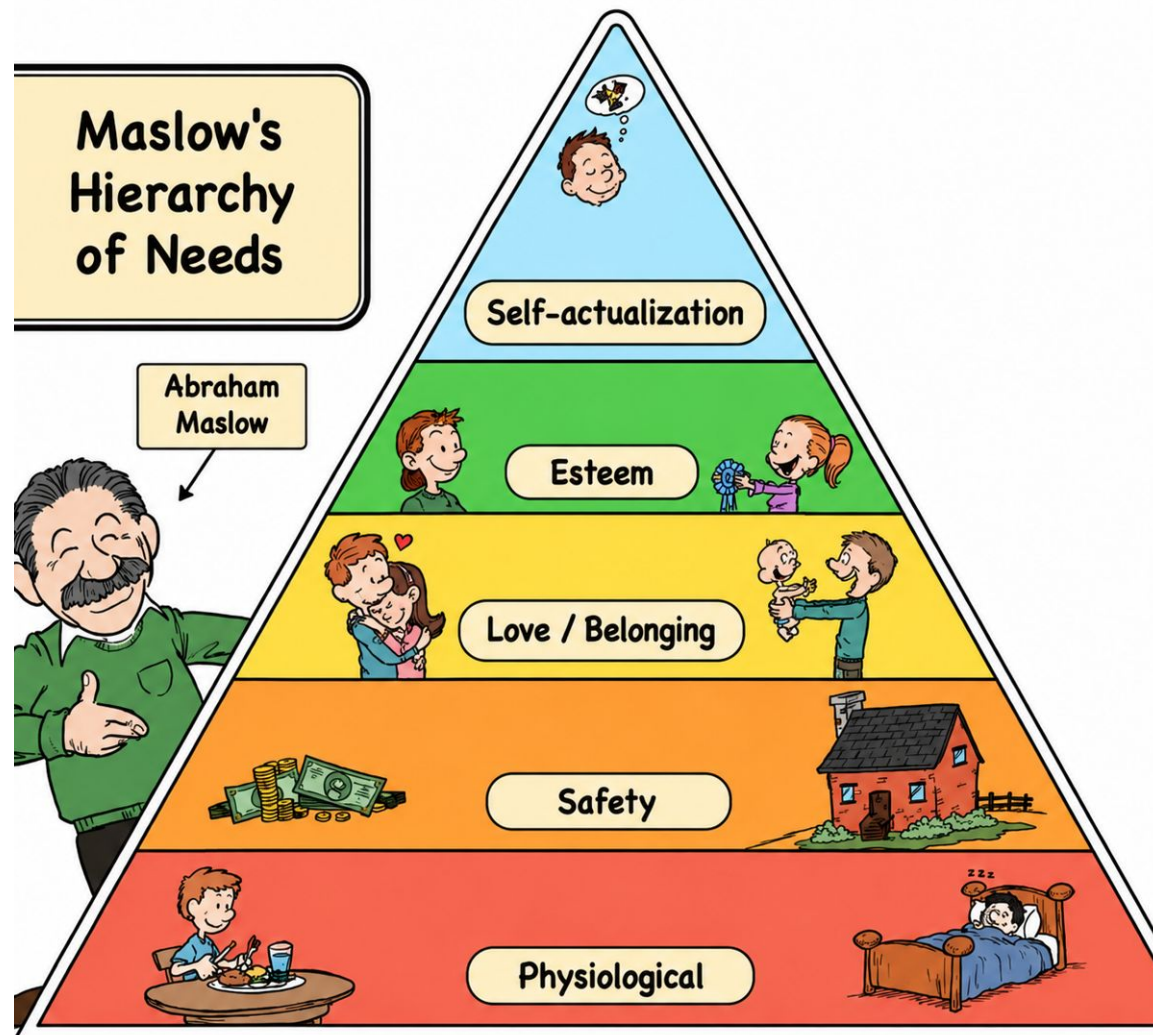

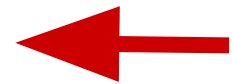

The primary goal is not to give, but to receive.
Even when a person gives, they do so with the intention of getting something in return.
This is an upside-down (inverted) world.

GOD CREATED US WITH NEEDS

AND HE, AS A FATHER, FULFILLS EVERY ONE OF THEM

→
GOD THE FATHER

WE EXPECT
PEOPLE

IN THE KING'S CHAMBERS, ALL NEEDS ARE MET

This is not a strategy for building a ministry or succeeding in business.

Resting in God is the destination—not a means to an end.

It is the place we were created to live.

And from that place of rest, the Father reveals what He wants us to do for others.

When He gives an assignment, He also supplies everything needed to fulfill it.

We don't strive to accomplish His work—we overflow from His presence.

HOW TO BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT?

1. INTERCONNECTED VESSELS

THIS IS HOW JESUS WAS FILLED BY THE FATHER

Luke 5:16 — "So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed." (NKJV)

Luke 6:12 — "Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God." (NKJV)

Luke 9:18 — "And it happened, as He was alone praying..." (NKJV)

Jesus consistently withdrew from the demands of ministry to spend time alone with the Father.

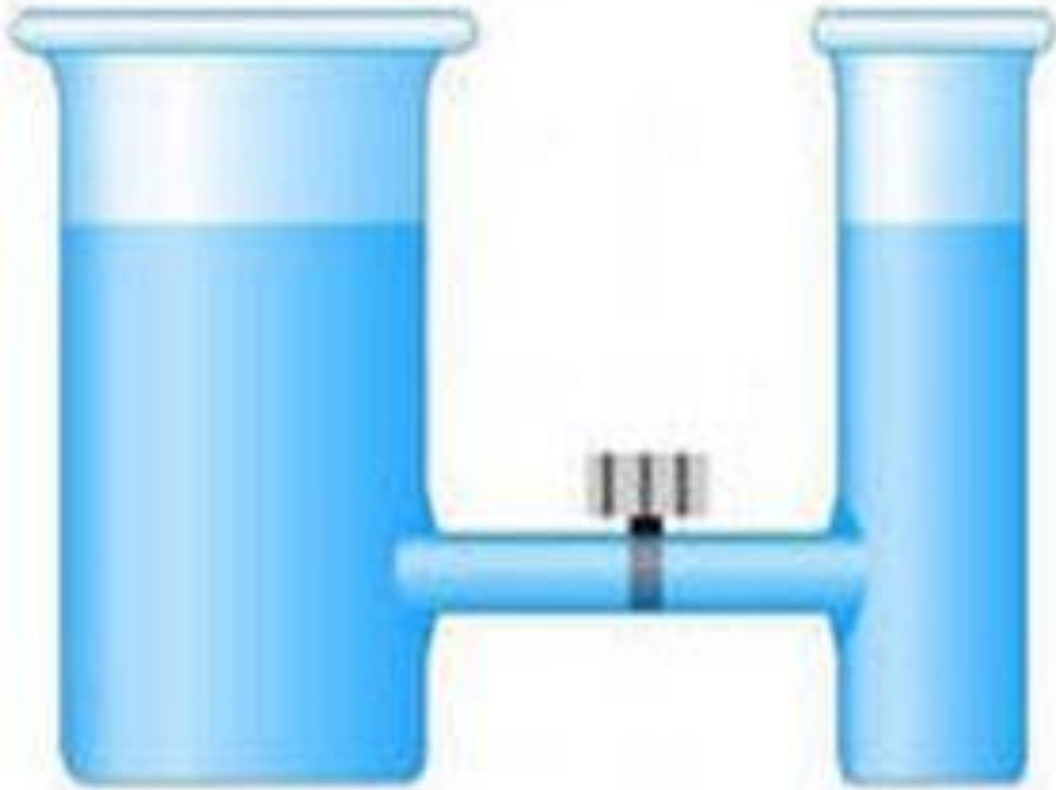

His strength, wisdom, peace, and power flowed out of His intimate relationship with the Father—not from striving or self-effort.

If the Son of God needed to continually abide in the Father's presence, how much more do we need to be filled by Him every day.

From that place of communion with the Father, Jesus naturally overflowed with God's life to everyone around Him.

INTERCONNECTED VESSELS

THEN HE POURED INTO THE LIVES OF OTHERS

John 7:37–38 — "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." (NKJV)

John 4:13–14 (Jesus and the Samaritan woman) — "Jesus answered and said to her, 'Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.'" (NKJV)

Jesus first received life from the Father, and then He poured that life into others.

The same principle applies to us.

We come to Jesus and drink deeply from His presence. As He fills us with His Spirit, His love, and His life, we begin to overflow.

Ministry is not about trying harder—it is about overflowing.

The rivers of living water that bless others are the natural overflow of a life continually filled by God.

HOW TO BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT?

2. LIKE A SYRINGE

GOD THE FATHER

Matthew 5:3 — "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 5:6 — "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled."

How desperately we need to recognize our spiritual poverty—that we have nothing to rely on except God, and that true life is found nowhere but in Him.

When we become so aware of our need for God that we feel as though we cannot breathe without Him, when we truly recognize our complete dependence on Him, then we will receive everything we need from God.

And from that place of fullness, we will naturally overflow with God's life to the people around us.

HOW TO BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT?

3. BY EXPERIENCING GRACE YOURSELF

When we come to God sincerely, without hiding our weaknesses and brokenness, we experience His unconditional love, complete acceptance, and mercy.

In those moments, our hearts are filled with God's love. Only then do we become able to love and accept other people the same way He loves and accepts us.

Practical Steps

1. Be honest before God.

Don't pretend or wear a mask. Bring all of your emotions to Him freely, without fear or shame.

2. Come to God not only when you're doing well.

Don't wait until you feel "worthy." Come to Him even in your darkest, most painful, and most broken moments.

3. Experience God's mercy and allow Him to fill you with His love.

The more you receive His love, the more you will be able to love your family, your friends, and the people around you.

"We love Him because He first loved us."

— 1 John 4:19 (NKJV)

A BRANCH THAT BEARS NO FRUIT (UNCONDITIONAL LOVE)

How can a branch remain on the vine and yet bear no fruit?

It is like a Christian through whom God's life is no longer flowing.

Something has interrupted the flow of nourishment.

The branch is no longer receiving from the vine. The faucet is closed.

It believes it can survive on its own, but it has no source of life within itself to produce fruit.

When nourishment flows freely, however, fruit grows naturally.

The branch cannot help but bear fruit—not because it strains, strives, disciplines itself, or forces the fruit to appear, but because it is continually receiving life from the vine.

The fruit is not people, ministry, or accomplishments.

The fruit of the Spirit is unconditional love—and from that love everything else flows.

Anything we try to accomplish without the fruit of love ultimately has no eternal value.

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love..." (Galatians 5:22, NKJV)

THE SOURCE OF DIVINE LOVE

PHASE 1: FILLING

SPIRITUAL
NOURISHMENT

PHASE 2: POURING OUT

OVERFLOWING DIVINE LOVE

We pour God's love into the world.

If you don't sleep or eat, you understand you won't be able to do anything. No one thinks: "Maybe I'd better not sleep so I don't waste time and can do more good deeds." That's impossible!

In the same way, it is impossible to do God's work without being filled with the Spirit. It is impossible to love God and people by your own strength.

Only by receiving nourishment from the Father can we do all things!

A newborn can do nothing but nurse — in the same way, we need to receive all our needs from the Father (become humble like a child)

JUST AS WE NEED PHYSICAL NOURISHMENT, WE NEED SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT.

If you don't sleep or eat, you know you won't be able to do anything.

No one says:
"I'll sleep less so I can do more good."
IT'S IMPOSSIBLE!

In the same way, we cannot do God's work without being filled with the Holy Spirit.

We cannot love God and people in our own strength.

We cannot accomplish God's work apart from His power.

ONLY BY RECEIVING FROM THE FATHER CAN WE DO ALL THINGS!

LOVE

FORGIVENESS

SERVICE

...AND MORE

A BABY IS BORN AND KNOWS HOW TO DO NOTHING EXCEPT SUCK MILK.

In the same way, we must receive everything we need from the Father
(HUMBLE OURSELVES LIKE A CHILD).

UNLIMITED LIFE IN THE FATHER'S CHAMBERS

“Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.

For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience.”

Hebrews 4:1–2, 10–11 (NKJV)

CAUTION: SIDE EFFECTS

We receive everything we need from the Father in many different ways. We no longer have to carry the burden of providing for ourselves or our families—that is now the responsibility of our Heavenly Father.

We can remain at peace and full of joy in every circumstance, knowing that our Father will take care of us.

Our hearts overflow with His love, delight, and joy. And we don't need to achieve anything in ministry or business to experience this fullness.

When we encounter someone who especially needs God's love, we gladly share what we have received. It is easy and natural because we are simply overflowing.

Everything we do is naturally anointed and empowered by the Holy Spirit because we are carrying out the King's will, not pursuing our own agenda.

"And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

— Philippians 4:19 (NKJV)

"Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you."

— Matthew 6:33 (NKJV)

This is the life of abiding in Christ: we receive from the Father, overflow with His love, and naturally become a blessing to the world around us.

CAUTION: SIDE EFFECTS

We can give to people without limit and without burning out — even to ungrateful and unkind people — because we overflow with Love!

We are not stopped by unfair behavior from others. On the contrary, we can build ever deeper relationships, especially with those who need Love so desperately!

We bring more value to people without expecting much in return — and by the law of sowing and reaping, we still receive great blessings from others.

Business metrics improve: the best employees want to work with us because they receive love, LTV increases, client NPS improves too — business growth follows.

But these are not goals, they are irreversible side effects.
The goal is to dwell in the King's chambers.
